Canadian International Peace Project

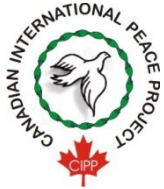

"Creating partnerships for global peace, security and development"

Jewish – Somali Mentorship Project

The Jewish Somali Mentorship Project is one of a series of collaborative initiatives being spearheaded by the Canadian International Peace Project and funded by Canadian Heritage, to assist Canadians of Somali heritage. This project is intended to aid in creating a successful cadre of Canadian Somali professionals, who can then assume greater leadership roles to assist with the development of their own community and contribute to Canadian society at large.

Individuals who wish to participate as mentors should complete the attached information page.

Applications can be submitted by e-mail to ebyan.farah@canadianipp.org, by fax at 416.384.1234 or by mail, 2001 Leslie Street, Toronto, Ontario M3B 2M3, Attention: Ebyan Farah.
